

Four South students in the summer school were killed. One died
(the other two being near the school)
The student house adjoining the school yard. Burns & others containing fourteen bags of powder.
The most of the boys in the school were subject to the removal of an annual list sent to the State as follows: In case of removal upon Death or Discharge.

John R. Kelly, State of New York

Highway
10 May 1878