

Lincolnshire Archives
St. Rumbold Street
Lincoln LN2 5AB

COPYRIGHT

No reproduction of this document is allowed without written permission from Lincolnshire Archives

| | |
|---------------|-----------------------------------|
| Document Ref. | TERRAR bundle Tingewick (buck) |
| Document Date | 25 May 1812 |

A Tenth of the Glebe Lands allotted by the Act of Parliament of the Parish of Tinglewick to the Rector of Tinglewick of his Successors.

Imprimis In Lieu of great & small Tithes one Plot of Land containing one Hundred fifty eight Acres, one Rood & twenty four Perches.

Item one other Plot of Land containing fifty six Acres & ten Perches

Item One other Plot or Allotment of Land in Lieu of Tithes of ancient Inclosures containing thirty Acres & one Rood & fourteen Perches

Item One other Plot or Allotment of Land to the Wardens & Scholars of New College Oxford, & to the Reverend John Risley Vicar of Tinglewick containing five Acres one Rood & four Perches

Item In Right of two years Land of Glebe Land & Rights of Common Heronants belonging two Plots of Land: one Plot containing forty one Acre & thirty Perches: one other Plot of Land also containing five Acres three Roods & thirty Perches.

Item belong also to the Rector of Tinglewick of his Successors the Tithes of the Wood belonging to New College Oxford

Item also the Tithes of the Wood close belonging to New College Oxford

Item The Tithes of two small Closes called Gawcot Closes but lying in the Parish of Tinglewick.

May 25th 1812. John Risley, Rector of Tinglewick