

Rectors of St Mary Magdalene Church, Tingewick 13th – 19th Centuries as taken from “The History & Antiquities of the County of Buckingham” by George Lipscombe, Esq. M.D., 1847.

Rectors named on the board in church are marked by an asterisk.

“

Geoffrey de Castro Rothamago, presented by the Monastery of St.

Catherine de Rothamago, resigned and was succeeded by

William Eton, presented by the same patrons

Robert was the next possessor.

1303 William Relond, alias Iburnat, presented by the Prior of Hermandsworth, Co.

Middlesex, Procurator of the Convent de Rothamago

1314 Walter de Bray

1361 Robert de Walton

1375 Hugh de Derham, presented by King Edward III who had seized into his hands the Temporalities of alien Monasteries

1415 John Greene *, A.M. presented by St. Mary Winton College in Oxford. (He is the first Rector listed in church but the two sets of dates differ.)

1420 Robert Tomlyn

1440 Nic. Oselbury * presented by the Warden &c. of New College, Oxford.

1453 Thomas Chalk, alias Chalke, alias Ywen, L.L.D., died 1473

1473 Thomas Dale *

1501 Edward Rosse *

1509 Thomas Makytt,* or Makill, B.C.L.. He resigned.

1540 Alexander Belsire * A.M. Can. Of Christ Church, Oxon. And First President of St. John's College. He was deprived by Queen Elizabeth.

1557 William Adde, “Parson of Tingewick”

1559 William Dalby, B.C.L. 17th February 1537. He was Chancellor of Bristol Diocese, but ejected under Queen Elizabeth.

1559 John Langland *. A.B. Archdeacon of Buckingham; instituted a second time, in 1576, having accepted the Rectory of Great Linford. He was buried at Tingewick 7th November 1589.

1589 Erasmus Williams*. He died and was buried here, and has a curious Monument in the Church.

1608 * John Urry, quitted this living in the Rebellion.

1645 John Good **

1647 John Beesley *, A.M. He was driven out.in

1657 by Stephen Sedgwick, who intruded and called himself Rector.

John Johnson, A.B. According to a footnote on the page, taken from Browne Willis, he was a Nonconformist.

1666 John Beesley re-possessed after the King's Restoration

1669 Thomas Edmonds A.M.

Stephen Penton,  A.M. (17th January 1666). He was Principal of Edmund Hall, Oxon. In 1675; also Rector of Wath, and Prebendary of Ripon in York Cathedral, for which he resigned his Headship at Oxford 15th March 1683.

1676 Lancelot Bland *, A.M.

1690 Thomas Oldys*, L.L.B. He was buried here.

1720 Francis Edmonds*, A.M. According to a second footnote, also from Willis's History of Buckingham "He greatly adorned the Church, made a handsome coved ceiling, repaired the Parsonage-house, and other buildings; and daily performed acts of charity in the parish. He has a Memorial in the Church-yard, erected by his parishioners, in token of gratitude and esteem."

1759 John Risley*, A.M. inducted 22nd May, on the presentation of the Sub-Warden of New College, in the absence of the Warden and Scholars of the same.

1819 Justly Hill*, A.M. on the presentation of the Warden and Scholars of New College, Oxon.

LICENSED CURATES

1816 – 5TH April 1822 Thomas Scott

5th April 1822 – Lady-day 1828 William Cotton Risley, A.M.

Lady-day 1828 – August 1829 Andrew William Gother, A.B.

September 1829 – 30, but not licensed Charles Causton, A.M.

March 1830 – July 1839 George Coleman, A.M.

1839 – the present worthy Minister George Varenne Reed, A.M. “